Numb. 8132.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 29. to Tuesday July 3. 1742.

Whitehall, July 3.

BY Letters brought by the Chester, Captain Long, dated the 31st of March at Porto Bello, there is Advice, that Vice-Admiral Vernon, with the Squadron of his Majesty's Ships under his Command, and Major General Wentworth with the Land Forces, the former from a Cruize off Carthagena, and the latter directly from Jamaica, arrived in that Harbour the 28th of the same Month, and a General Council of War having been held on the said 31st of March it was unanimously agreed, that as the Troops had been three Weeks in the Passage from Jamaica, instead of eight Days, which is the usual Time, by reason of contrary Winds, so that the rainy Season was then beginning; and as several of the Transports had been separated from the Convoy at Sea, and not yet arrived, and particularly the greater Part of the Negroes, it would be therefore impracticable to undertake at present the Expedition which had been projected, and it was accordingly resolved to return forthwith to Jamaica.

By the same Letters it is written, that they had Advice from Panama, that Commodore Anson had gained his Passage round Cape Horn, and that he had got to the Island of St. Juan Fernandez, where he remained four or five Months to recruit his Men, and refit his Ships; and that he had since plunder'd Payta, and taken four or five Sail of Ships between Lima and Panama, by which he had got considerable Treasure, and that he went from thence to the Island of Plate to careen.

Constantinople, May 22. The Change of the Vizir has not been followed by any other Alterations at Court, or any new Measures in the Government: Some Vessels laden with Corn designed for Trebisond, were at first detained, but they have since been sent forward. It was expected that there would have been some new Regulations about the Price of Provisions, as this was one of the common Imputations upon the late Vizier, but hitherto every Thing keeps in the same Course. It is now assured that the Porte received two Couriers on the 20th from the Pashau of Akisca in Georgia, with an Account that the Lesghees had defeated a third Army of Shaugh Nadir, commanded by his first Minister, with a great Effusion of Blood on both Sides: 'Tis said the Pashaw of Bagdat has sent to the Porte the Pretensions of Shaugh Nadir with regard to Mecca, and his Proposals, that they should send Lawyers, and Doctors to the Confines, to confer with his upon the Points in Controversy; but the Porte will not suffer the Decisions, which have been given, on this Side, to be called in Question, or submit to their being debated.

Moscow, May 31, O. S. The Diversions of this Court which began at the Coronation, and have continued ever since without Interruption, will be terminated this Evening, by a Masquerade, and a Fire Work, which is to be played off before the Palace.

(Price Two-Pence.)

Stockholm, June 15, O. S. On the 13th Instant, his Swedish Majesty removed from his Palace here in Town to Carlberg, in order to spend there part of the present fine Season. Letters from Finland advise, that the Swedish and Muscovite Armies were got out of their Winter Quarters, and the general Opinion here is, that we shall soon hear of some Action of Importance in those Parts.

Naples, June 12, N. S. On the 6th a Transport arrived here from Genoa with Recruits for the Swiss Regiments in the King's Service. On the 7th the First Battallion of the Regiment Royal Italian from Gaeta was landed here, having been relieved by another of the Corsican Regiments.

Florence, June 24. On the 18th Instant, in Consequence of the Consent granted by the Regency, a Party of about 600 Spanish Horse and Foot that remained ill in the Genoese State, passed thro' this State by Barberino and Terra del Sole, on their March to join their Army in Lombardy. By Letters from Lombardy we are informed, that the Sardinian and Austrian Armies have made themselves Masters of Finale, to prevent the Design it was supposed M. de Montemar had to occupy that Post. On the 17th his Highness the Duke of Modena retired from Crespino to the Padouana, to a Country Seat of a Venetian Noblemen upon the Brent. It is affirmed that the Hussars have seized 100 Horses of the Duke's Stud. On the 13th, after a Council of War held by M. de Montemar with the Spanish and Neapolitan Generals, the heavy Baggage of the respective Armies, that was left at Bologna, was removed from thence to Faenza, and other Cities of the Romagna, as were their Hospitals, with about 3000 Sick, towards Ferrara, and on the 17th at Night the whole Spanish and Neapolitan Armies decamped privately from Castel Franco &c. and along the Panaro, withdrew to St. Giovanni, Persiceto, Cento, &c. about eight Miles distant from their former Encampment. They were attacked in the Rear Guard near St. Agata on this Side the Panaro, by a strong Party of Croatians and Hussars, who did them great Damage, and took Part of their Baggage: 'Tis calculated that the Spaniards have lost in this Decampment near 2000 Men. Parties of 20 and 30 per Day arrive at Florence. This Day, the 24th, being St. John's Festival, the respective Cities, Towns, Villages, Barons, &c. of the State of Tuscany, paid their usual Homages to the Great Duke; the Senator Strozzi, President of the supreme Magistrate of Florence, being appointed by his Royal Highness to receive the same in his Stead.

Camp of Collegaro, June 30, N. S. We have just received the News of the Surrender of the Cittadel of Modena, and that the Garrison, consisting of 3000 Men, are made Prisoners of War.

Vienna June 23. On the 19th the Army was at Mauth, from whence they will have proceeded to Chevrack, Beraun, and Tauschnick, at which last Place they will be as to Night, and wait there for the coming up of every Thing necessary for the Attack of the French, who after after having camped ſeveral Hours out of the Eaſtern Lines, are now poſted before the Weſtern Lines, with an Army of about 15,000 Men, whereof there may be about 6000 Horſe. We hear there are great Diſſenſions amongſt their Generals. The French cannot, upon the moſt moderate Calculation, have loſt leſs than 6000 Men, and they are getting together what they can of old Tents, and Clothes, and all Sorts of Utenſils to be found at Prague, for forming their new Camp and Equipages. There are common Huſſars in Prince Charles's Army who have more than a Thouſand Ducats in their Pockets ſince the Paſſage of the Mulda.

Scafhouſe, June 27. The 13 Cantons of the laudable Helvetick Body will hold their Annual Aſſembly next Week at Baden.

Dreſden, July 1. The Auſtrians have their Head Quarters near Konigſhal, but come up to the very Gates of Prague, and by their Light Horſe endeavour, and with ſome Succeſs, to intercept the French Foragers; by which the Cavalry in the Town will at laſt be ruined; for it is aſſured that they have ſcarce any Hay or Oats left. The Deſertion of the French from thence is very great.

Duſſeldorp, July 3. The Marſhal de Maillebois return'd hither from Aix the 30th of laſt Month.

Paris, July 7, N. S. We have had a Report here for ſome Days, which is now confirmed, that ſome Engliſh Men of War have burnt five Spaniſh Gallies, and diſabled a ſixth, near St. Tropes.

Hague, July 7. The Propoſition for putting 50 Battallions, amounting to 40,000 Foot, and 50 Squadrons, amounting to 7500 Horſe, into a Readineſs to march upon the firſt Orders, by iſſuing to the Officers the Money for their Equipages, paſſed Yeſterday unanimouſly in the Aſſembly of the States of Holland, and will be brought To-day into that of the Generality. Letters from Dreſden, of the 30th paſt bring Advice, that the Great Duke was arrived at the Army, and was advanced within two Cannon Shot of Prague.

Whitehall, July 3.

Note alſo, That if ſuch Letters to Foreign Parts are put into any of the Country Offices, the Inland Poſtage of ſuch Letters to London muſt alſo be paid on putting the ſame into ſuch Office.

By Command of the Poſt Maſter General.
